Rounds

The Seed and the Fruit

- In the Seeds of Adam, who was constituted head of all generations, as he possessed all Seeds in order to be able to give to others.
- In all the works of the Divine Will in the development of Seeds as water to sprinkle it, in the sun to make it fertile, in the wind to purify it, in the cold to make it put forth roots, and in the heat to develop it to reach maturity.
- In all the Acts of souls that form the water to sprinkle the Seed so plants grow quickly and produce fruits.
- In the prodigy of the smallest acts of creatures, who living in the Divine Will, flow into all things of its Creator and diffuse everywhere and in everyone.

From the Fruit one Knows the Tree.
